

Marios Papaloukas & Associates Law Office in Athens - Greece

Our Practice

Real Estate: We are very active in the field of real estate, with a deep expertise in this field, handling real estate deals and also advising individuals (real estate owners), real estate developers and real estate development companies as well as financial institutions. Our practice also includes several sale and lease back agreements. Many of our best clients are active in the real estate investment business or in the hotel/leisure sector.

Contracts: Our office provides full legal advice on drafting and negotiating all types of commercial contracts, such as agency & distribution, franchising, leasing and IT agreements, as well as all sorts of corporate contracts (e.g. shareholders, stock purchase, escrow, stock options, outsourcing agreements).

Corporate Law: A great part of our clients are enterprises, both multinational and large local business. We offer a wide range of comprehensive commercial and legal advice and services to domestic and foreign companies. All the lawyers in our office have a vast experience in drafting and negotiating commercial contracts for our clients covering their every day needs either operational or for development. In this respect we take care of their corporate works (Board of Directors meetings, General Meeting of Shareholders, amendments of the Articles of Association etc.) as well as of all their issues (contracts, opinions in labour or tax, litigation, permits etc.) including criminal cases.

Due Diligence: Our office has a very extensive experience in conducting legal due diligence and we have undertaken the legal due diligence for many companies of various sizes.

Litigation & Dispute Resolution: Our office has substantial involvement in litigation and dispute resolution. Over the years we have handled a number of major litigation cases before the Greek Courts and thus have gained enormous experience in handling complex and high value cases that range from claims and debt collection to family law cases and commercial disputes.

Penal Law: Our office provides full legal advice and handling of penal law cases and is staffed with specialized penal lawyers with many years of experience.

Sports Law: Our office provides legal advice to sports corporations, sports authorities and athletes and the handling of sports law cases before the Greek Courts or any sports dispute resolution authority.

